Reporting back results from a Dunedin pilot study

Student Volunteers Working Within Dunedin Community Organisations

This joint Dunedin Community Research Forum and Dunedin Leaders of Volunteers Network meeting provides a chance to meet up and further the discussion we started back in September last year.

In this forum, Dr Bronwyn Boon will report back on the results of the pilot study she has been conducting over the last three months that aims to flesh out some of the issues, challenges and 'best practice' perspectives on student volunteering that were raised in the forum last year.

Wednesday 15th October 12:00-2:00pm

Waipori Room, Dunedin Community Link
Corner Castle & St. Andrew Streets

12:00 Coffee & Conversation

12:30-1:00 Presentation of results

1:00-2:00 Open discussion of 'Where to next with this research?'
